

Reflective Questions Challenge 1

Article 27: Every child has the right to a standard of living adequate for the child's physical, mental, spiritual, moral and social development.

- With whom do you feel happy?
- What makes a house a home?
- Name a few basic needs you find important.
- Who should take care of these?
- If your parents couldn't take care of you; who would?
- Do you have right to everything you like or want?
- Do you have to do anything for the people that take care of you?

Article 24:

Every child has the right to health care. This means the right to go to a doctor, but also to have clean drinking water.

- What do you need to grow up in a healthy way?
- What do you need and who takes care of you when you're ill?
- Do you also have the right to eat unhealthy but tasty food?
- What does food and drinking water have to do with infant mortality according to you?
- Do the children in your environment have enough healthy food?
- Who should make sure that children can get vaccinated?
- What can you do yourself to make sure you're healthy?

Article 22:

The right to protection and humanitarian assistance. Because a child is vulnerable and has the right to protection and safety.

- What do you need to feel safe?
- Name four things you would take with you if you had to move.
- What would be a reason to flee?
- What do you know about the refugees in a war?
- What do you know about refugees from poverty?
- Who is responsible for the children that have to go on the run?
- What rights do refugee children have?